It is noted that in summary report of SA Leonard H. McCoy captioned, "La Cosa Nostra, AR-Conspiracy," dated 7-19-65 at New York, Frank Buccieri is listed as a suspect member of La Cosa Nostra in Chicago.

As you know, cases should be opened and investigation conducted on those individuals identified as members or suspected members of La Cosa Nostra. Accordingly, a report should be submitted to the Bureau within 45 days setting forth background data, current activities and associations of the subject. In the event you feel additional investigation is not warranted, an appropriate justification should be included in the cover page of your report.

Memorandum

TO : DIRECTOR, FBI (92-6736)

DATE: 9/13/65

FROM : SAC, CHICAGO (92-1173)

SUBJECT: FRANK BUCCIERI, aka.
AR

Reurlet of 8/27/65, and report of SA LEONARD H. MC COY captioned "LA COSA NOSTRA, AR - CONSPIRACY", dated 7/19/65, at New York.

In May, 1962, the Chicago Division opened an Anti-Racketeering case on FIORE BUCCIERI, also known as. During the course of this investigation FRANK BUCCIERI, brother of FIORE, became known as the co-owner of the Moehler Furniture Company and a person who because of his clean record and legitimate background operated under the aegis of FIORE. Because of the fact that FRANK BUCCIERI did not appear to be involved except as a front, and since FRANK's activities were covered through the investigation of his brother, no separate Anti-Racketeering case was opened.

When composing a list of individuals for La Cosa Nostra consideration, FRANK BUCCIERI was included as a "potential" member because of his background (origin) and close relationship to his brother. It was not believed that he was a suspected of La Cosa Nostra membership but at some time in the future could be a person who might be selected for gromming as an La Cosa Nostra member.

A thorough review of the FIORE BUCCIERI file for any indication that FRANK BUCCIERI is worthy of consideration as an La Coas Nostra "suspect" has been made. It still appears that FRANK BUCCIERI operates in a legitimate manner and no information indicates he would warrant an Anti-Racketeering investigation at this time.

Chicago continues to follow his activities and will constantly assess his "potential" and the feasibility of opening a separate Anti-Racketeering - unless advised to the contrary by Bureau no active Anti-Racketeering investigation will be conducted.

Information Obtained at Park Ridge Inn

On August 27, 1965, SAs JOSEPH G. SHEA and [redacted] made inquiry at 1028 South Greenwood, Park Ridge, Illinois. The present resident of this address advised that the FRANK BUCCIERI family had moved out over a month ago. She stated that they had moved temporarily to the Park Ridge Inn but may have since then moved to their new home which was being built in a wooded area several blocks from 1028 South Greenwood. She said that their old telephone, TAlcott 3-5207, had been moved to their new residence. b6 b7C

It is noted that telephone number TA 3-5207 is currently listed to FRANK P. BUCCIERI, 2020 West Arthur, Park Ridge, Illinois.

[redacted] Park Ridge Inn, Busse Highway and Touhy Avenue, Park Ridge, Illinois, was contacted on August 27, 1965, by SAs SHEA and [redacted] advised that the BUCCIERI family had resided in this motel for about three weeks. [redacted] said that he knew nothing about the BUCCIERIs other than that they had been guests at the motel. [redacted] produced records which reflected that the following telephone calls had been made from rooms occupied by the BUCCIERI family, during the time they stayed at this motel:

Business Interests

1. Moeller Brothers Furniture Company

CG T-2 on December 4, 1962, advised that FRANK BUCCIERI had stated that Moeller Brothers Furniture Store was "his joint" and that he has two other furniture stores as well.

[redacted]

CG T-3 on May 28, 1962, furnished the following information concerning the condition of Moeller Brothers, Incorporated, as of March 20, 1962:

b6
b7C
Referral/Consult

[redacted] - President
[redacted] - Vice-President
FRANK BUCCIERI - Secretary and Treasurer
Sales - $1,068,087 (1960)
Worth - $116,496
Employees - 6
Net Profit, 1960 - $18,227

In 1961, the company sustained a loss because of a fire on April 4, 1961. Firemen estimated damage at time of fire as $75,000. [redacted] Vice-President, previously reported damages near $75,000, of which about $40,000 was to the inventories and the remainder to the building. A $12,000 settlement was received on the building. Management later indicated that damage to inventories was only about $10,000 although not covered by insurance.

A suit for $29,746 was filed against Moeller Brothers, Incorporated, by Remco, Incorporated, on Municipal Court Docket Number 61 M 2647, covering a claim for damages to inventories of the plaintiff, which were stored in the basement of the building. A judgment was given the plaintiff for $29,746 on March 6, 1962, and [redacted] stated the company would pay the judgment.

This company retails a general line of furniture, lamps, stoves, and coverings, catering principally to lower income groups. At least 40% of sales are on extended terms with 33% down payment and balance due over a period of 70 days to 12 months, secured by conditional sales contracts and wage assignments. The company rents the entire five story brick building which is owned by B & B Wholesalers, Incorporated.

The company was incorporated in Illinois as Moeller Brothers Furniture and Storage Company in March, 1934. Authorized capital of 1,000 shares of no par value common stock. On July 17, 1958, the name was changed to Moeller Brothers, Incorporated.

[redacted] married, native born, was employed as a salesman for Sturdy May Company before 1939. From 1939 to 1940, he operated individually a Maytag store on North Avenue. In 1940, he entered partnership with [redacted] to start similar business, located at 448 West North Avenue, operating as North Shore Appliance and Furniture Company. On March 27, 1942, he withdrew and worked in this same line until 1946, when he became associated with Illinois Furniture and Appliance Company of which he became sole owner in 1950. On July 1, 1958, he discontinued that business and joined Moeller Brothers. b6 b7C

[redacted] married, native born. He has been associated with his brother since 1946, originally with Illinois Furniture and Appliance Company, and then with Moeller Brothers. He reportedly also engages in the insurance business as a sideline.

FRANK BUCCIERI is 44, married, native born. He also was reportedly associated with [redacted] in the Illinois Furniture and Appliance Company since 1946. Prior to that, he was in service.

2. B & B Finance Company

CG T-3 on May 28, 1962, furnished the following information on the condition of B & B

Finance Company, 1272 Milwaukee Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, on February 11, 1960:

[redacted] - President
FRANK P. BUCCIERI - Vice-President
[redacted] - Secretary and Treasurer
Net Worth - $140,000
Incorporated - September 4, 1957. Authorized capital $100,000, 1,000 shares, $100 par common.

b6
b7C

This company operates as a finance company to deal and engage in buying and selling accounts receivable and other evidence of indebtedness, principally for Moeller Brothers.

CG T-3 advised that as of September 29, 1960, the net worth of the above company was about $145,000. Volume for 1960 was running about $40,000 monthly. Accounts were maintained in two Chicago banks with aggregate balances of medium four figures.

3. Frontier Finance Corporation

The "Chicago American", Diamond Final Edition, dated May 29, 1952, Page 1, Column 4, carried a Chicago Crime Commission report by VIRGIL W. PETERSON, Operating Director of the Commission, under the title, "Underworld Reaches Into Big Business". The first part of this report reads as follows:

"Early in 1961, warnings were issued that organized criminal elements were becoming increasingly interested in the field of finance. Edward C. Jaegermann, director of special investigations for the Securities and Exchange commission, stated:

"'The underworld is invading the financial community.'

"He mentioned a crime syndicate involved in narcotics, prostitution, gambling and extortion in the eastern part of the country which appears to be 'moving into some aspects of the securities business.'

"The field of finance has also been invaded in the Chicago area by hoodlums and their associates. Following the gang killing of ex-convict RALPH DEL GENIO, whose body was found on June 20, 1961, it was learned that he had lost heavily in Cicero gambling establishments and had borrowed from numerous firms including the Frontier Finance Corporation, 5131 W. Madison St. in Chicago.

"One of the principals in the Frontier Finance corporation was Frank Buccieri, 1128 S. Greenwood Ave., Park Ridge. His brother, Fiore (Fifi) Buccieri, of 3004 South Maple Ave., Berwyn, is a pal of Tony Accardo and other Capone mobsters.

"Among the customers of the Frontier Finance corporation was ex-convict Joseph Siciliano, one known as the horse meat king. Frank Buccieri stated that his brother Fiore (Fifi) Buccieri made the arrangements whereby Siciliano was loaned several thousand dollars by the Frontier company to engage in the wholesale meat business. Siciliano named his business venture the Frontier Meat Specialties, Inc., with offices at 1118 W. Randolph St., in Chicago.

"In the early 1950s Siciliano was a prime figure in a horse meat scandal that rocked the Chicago area. Hoodlums were peddling horse meat as beef with the connivance of public officials.

"Among the numerous hoodlums sought by the Cook County Grand Jury for questioning in the horse meat scandal was Fiore (Fifi) Buccieri.

"The Buccieri brothers had their fingers in several finance company operations in 1961. Frank Buccieri was vice-president of the Frontier Finance Corporation located at 5131 West Madison St., Chicago, and his brother Fiore (Fifi) Buccieri exerted his influence in the affairs of this company as well. Frank Buccieri was president of the Post Finance Corporation also located at 5131 W. Madison St., in Chicago, and [redacted] was secretary of both the Frontier and Post companies. Fiore Buccieri was secretary of the B & B Finance Company located at 1272-8 Milwaukee Ave. in Chicago.

"Conrad F. Becker, Director of the State Department of Financial Institutions, ordered an inquiry into the connections of Frank and Fiore Buccieri with the loan business in Chicago. Following an investigation by Peter J. McGuire, Chief Investigator for Attorney General William G. Clark, it was announced that Frank Buccieri had sold his stock in the Frontier Finance Corporation and relinquished his state license for the Post Finance Company.

"Collector Slain

"Following the gang killing of ex-convict William (Action) Jackson, whose body was found on Aug. 11, 1961, it was learned that he had borrowed money from the Parr Finance Company, 747 Madison Street in Oak Park. The office manager of the Parr Company, ex-bootlegger Sammy Lewis, of 1654 N. Newland Avenue, Chicago, had hired Jackson to bring in new customers and to round up bad debts."

The "Chicago American", Diamond Final Edition, dated April 12, 1961, Page 4, Column 6, contained an article captioned, "Hoodlum in Firm, Schroeder Wants Out".

The article stated that Chicago's Postmaster CARL A. SCHROEDER, who discovered he is a financial associate of a Chicago hoodlum, wants out.

SCHROEDER says he found out only "yesterday" about the unsavory reputation of FRANK BUCCIERI, 42, of 1028 South Greenwood Avenue, Park Ridge, fellow stockholder in the Frontier Finance Corporation, 5131 Madison Street.

BUCCIERI has been identified by police as a supervisor of West Side gambling for his more notorious brother, FIORE, of 3004 South Maple Avenue, Berwyn.

The two other firms involved in an investigation are the Post Finance Corporation, 1272 Milwaukee Avenue, and the B & B Finance Company, at the same address.

FRANK BUCCIERI is listed as president of Post, and his brother, FIORE, is secretary - treasurer and delinquent loans collector of B & B.

The "Chicago American", Diamond Final Edition, dated April 14, 1961, Page 5, Column 1, contained an article captioned, "State Widens Probe of Mob, Loans Link".

This article reflected that the State's investigation of loan and finance companies backed by crime syndicate money is being broadened.

CONRAD F. BECKER, State Director of financial institutions, said "today" he has received information concerning several such businesses as the result of the disclosure of his investigation of FRANK BUCCIERI's interest in two state licensed loan firms and a finance company.

BECKER had threatened to revoke the firm's (Frontier) license because of BUCCIERI's interest. BUCCIERI is a brother of FIORE (Fifi) BUCCIERI, reputed syndicate gambling chief in the Monroe Street and Marquette police districts.

They also are seeking to trace loans made by FIORE BUCCIERI to JOSEPH SICILIANO, 43, ex-convict, who ran the horse meat racket before he was sent to prison.

[redacted] former Deputy Sheriff and president of Frontier Finance Corporation, denied FIORE BUCCIERI's loans to SICILIANO had anything to do with the corporation's business. b6 b7C

FRANK BUCCIERI said his brother had loaned $800 to SICILIANO, with SICILIANO's auto as security. "'FIFI' (FIORE) is a soft touch and never turns anyone down", FRANK said.

FIORE BUCCIERI reputedly is a loan shark, who lends money at usurious rates - a circumstance that often leads to a crime syndicate takeover of a once legitimate business. He lives at 3004 South Maple Avenue, Berwyn. FRANK BUCCIERI lives at 1028 South Greenwood Avenue, Park Ridge.

The "Chicago Daily Tribune", Three Star Sports Final Edition, dated April 19, 1961, Page 1, Column 1, Part 3, contained an article, "Gang Gambler Steps Out of 2 Loan Firms--Surrenders License, Sells Stock". b6 b7C

This article reflects that FRANK BUCCIERI, 42, a crime syndicate gambler, has abandoned his invasion of the small loan business, State officials said.

BUCCIERI jettisoned his holdings in the two companies while his financial affairs were under investigation by the Attorney General, the State Department of financial institutions, and Chicago Police.

The inquiry began last week after "The Tribune" revealed that BUCCIERI had acquired interests in the two companies and was operating a third finance company with his gangster brother, FIORE (FIFI) BUCCIERI, 53.

The elder BUCCIERI, who lives at 3004 South Maple Avenue, Berwyn, is a gang gambling chief and underworld loan shark. His West Side gambling domain is supervised by FRANK while FIFI negotiates loans for usurious interest, known in gangland as "the juice".

[redacted] for Illinois Attorney General WILLIAM G. CLARK, said that BUCCIERI's withdrawal from the small loan field would not halt the State investigation of the Frontier Finance Corporation and the B & B Finance Company, 1272 Milwaukee Avenue, owned by FRANK and FIFI BUCCIERI.

[redacted] an attorney for the Frontier Company, invited [redacted] agents to examine the firm's customer accounts. The Frontier borrowers, [redacted] said, were not linked with FIFI BUCCIERI.

[redacted] said his men were investigating reports that the B & B Company was set up as a shield for the loan sharking activities of FIFI BUCCIERI.

CG T-3 on May 28, 1962, advised that as of May 18, 1961, the financial condition of Frontier Finance Corporation, 5131 West Madison Street, Chicago, was as follows:

[redacted] President
(Retired Chicago Police Captain)

[redacted] Vice-President
(Attorney)

[redacted] Secretary and Treasurer
(previously employed by Citizens Loan Corporation for 20 years)

b6
b7C

Manager [redacted] estimated the condition of the company as follows:

Cash in bank	$100,000
Accounts Received	870,000
Fixtures and Equipment	20,000
R. E. & Building	100,000
Owing Officers	200,000
Net Worth	890,000

Volume of business was increasing with profitability extremely high.

Real estate owned by the corporation is located at 5131 West Madison. There is an undetermined mortgage on the property.

A suit against this corporation by Insurance Producers Bulletin for $691 on March 11, 1960 (Docket 60 M 104955) was dismissed.

The corporation maintains banking relations with various banks in the Chicago area. An unsecured medium five figure loan outstanding in 1960 has been paid. Substantial balances are carried at the two main banks of the corporation.

The corporation operates as a loan finance company under the Consumers Finance Law of the State of Illinois. The territory covers the Chicago area. There are four employees.

The company was incorporated on April 3, 1959, authorized capital 4,000 shares common stock, par value $50.

CG T-4 on December 7, 1962, furnished the following information:

He advised that about four years ago [redacted] opened Frontier Finance at 5131 West Madison Street, Chicago. Investors and partners in this company were [redacted] and FRANK BUCCIERI. CG T-4 stated that FIORE BUCCIERI's money was reportedly invested in this company through FRANK BUCCIERI and [redacted] Subsequently, there was a newspaper expose because of FRANK BUCCIERI's position in the company. At this time, FRANK BUCCIERI reportedly sold his interest in the company; however, CG T-4 stated that actually he only transferred his interest to [redacted] and still remains a silent partner.

CG T-4 advised that a couple of years ago, [redacted] and FRANK BUCCIERI were all set to open another finance company called Post Finance, next to Moeller Brothers at 1272 Milwaukee Avenue. They were all set to open when there was a fire in Moeller Brothers, which fire caused some smoke damage to Post Finance. CG T-4 stated that [redacted] and BUCCIERI, after opening Post Finance, had planned to take all the accounts from Frontier Finance over to Post Finance, leaving [redacted]

[redacted] and [redacted] with a business but no accounts. CG T-4 advised that [redacted] who is on the Chicago Transit Authority Board and is a Republican Committeeman, also has an interest in Frontier Finance.

CG T-4 stated that the fire and subsequent newspaper expose of FRANK BUCCIERI's interest in Post Finance and Frontier Finance resulted in Post Finance not being opened. CG T-4 advised that FRANK BUCCIERI sold all the office machines from Post Finance to [redacted] who owns Lincoln Loans across the street from Moeller Brothers.

CG T-4 advised that while Frontier Finance handles regular legitimate loans, the big profits come from "juice" loans. He said "juice" payments are made in person at the Frontier Finance office and that [redacted] has a separate filing box containing records of juice loans. CG T-4 stated that [redacted] tells people he deals with in connection with "juice" loans that the money is not his but is either "BUCCIERI's" or [redacted] money. b6 b7C

CG T-4 advised that [redacted] also maintains a book reflecting the true names of individuals followed by other names under which they have loans from Frontier Finance.

CG T-4 stated that [redacted] at the present has an interest in a meat market at 600 South Pulaski, Chicago, Illinois, which market was taken over by [redacted] from an individual who got too deep in "juice" to [redacted]

CG T-4 related that last Labor Day FIORE BUCCIERI had a party at his Lake Geneva residence. CG T-4 said that [redacted] has a summer home across the lake and that [redacted] left their cars at [redacted] home and came to BUCCIERI's residence by boat.

CG T-4 advised that Frontier Finance allegedly maintains two sets of financial statements, one for income tax purposes and one for the purpose of obtaining bank loans to finance their juice operations. CG T-4 said that Frontier Finance has borrowed from the following banks:

Central National Bank
Oak Park National Bank
Bank of Broadway, Melrose Park
Mercantile National Bank

On January 8, 1963, CG T-4 advised that TONY "PINE" ELDORADO has an office in the back of Frontier Finance Company where he handles "juice" loan business.

[redacted] when interviewed by SAs [redacted] and [redacted] on January 31, 1963, furnished the following information:

[redacted]

CG T-5 on February 4, 1963, furnished the following information:

He stated that [redacted] handles the juice loan business at Frontier Finance Corporation. Customers coming in to make juice payments go to a back room with [redacted] Delinquent accounts concerning juice loans are turned over to TONY ELDORADO, also known as TONY PINE, who operates out of a back room at Frontier Finance. Numerous juice loan customers are sent to Frontier by [redacted] also known as [redacted] and [redacted] was in frequent contact with "FEEF" BUCCIERI and would have to call BUCCIERI before making a second loan to a juice customer. b6 b7C

Captain [redacted] Chicago Police Department, advised SA [redacted] that he had obtained the following information from [redacted] "Chicago Tribune" reporter who had interviewed [redacted] on February 18, 1963:

He said that [redacted] stated that when they set up Frontier Finance they had all put $40,000 into the company. FRANK BUCCIERI borrowed $25,000 from B & B Finance and put in $15,000 of his own money. When BUCCIERI had to get out, [redacted] took over BUCCIERI's share by taking over the note to B & B Finance and paying $15,000 to FRANK BUCCIERI. He said he had been making payments to B & B Finance since 1960. In 1962, he paid off B & B Finance by mortgaging his house and borrowing money from friends and relatives.

[redacted] Chicago, Illinois, [redacted] Chicago United States Attorney's Office, [redacted] furnished the following information to SA [redacted] on March 4, 1963:

[redacted] stated that he is the [redacted] of [redacted] and has been the [redacted] for Frontier Finance since the newspaper expose in 1960. He stated that at that time, he told [redacted] that Frontier's troubles seemed to revolve around [redacted] and he suggested to his uncle that he get out of the organization. He said that [redacted] said that [redacted] had been a precinct captain of his for years and that he had the utmost confidence in [redacted] said he questioned [redacted] about the newspaper allegations and that [redacted] had ready explanations for everything. [redacted] said that at the time he believed the newspaper story regarding Frontier was a blown up distortion of the facts. He stated, however, that at his insistence and against [redacted] wishes, he demanded that FRANK BUCCIERI would have to sell his interest in Frontier. He said that [redacted] agreed to buy out BUCCIERI and subsequently [redacted] showed [redacted] checks and other papers indicating on paper at least that [redacted] had bought out FRANK BUCCIERI.

He stated that since his recent conversation with Captain [redacted] he now realizes that there is a lot more than just newspaper innuendo to the stories about Frontier Finance. He said that he is convinced that [redacted] was unaware of the activities of [redacted] and that [redacted] had [redacted] as well as himself hoodwinked as to his activities. He stated that he is sure [redacted] was unaware of [redacted] activities as he let three of his relatives, all very respectable people, invest money in debenture bonds at six per cent interest in Frontier Finance. [redacted] said his only interest at this time is to get [redacted] out of the business with as little loss of money as possible.

[redacted] said he has been pushing [redacted] and [redacted] of the Illinois Department of Financial Institutions to conduct a complete investigation of Frontier Finance. He stated that he is sure the activities of Frontier Finance, excluding the activities of [redacted] on his own, are all legal activities with legal records.

[redacted] advised that he had questioned [redacted] as to where he got the money for his investment in Frontier Finance Corporation. [redacted] said he had mortgaged his home to make the initial $20,000 investment.

The second $20,000 investment was borrowed from [redacted] In connection with his buying out of FRANK BUCCIERI, he said he took over a promissory note made by FRANK BUCCIERI to B & B Finance Company.

On September 11, 1963, [redacted] advised that an agreement had been reached to sell the business to Mercantile Financial Corporation and that the closing date had been set for September 20, 1963. It is to be noted that the records of Frontier Finance Corporation were subpoenaed by the United States Grand Jury at Chicago and SAs [redacted] and [redacted] were made agents of the Grand Jury to review these records. A review of these records reflected that a large percentage of loans made by Frontier were to hoodlums or individuals closely associated with hoodlums.

Twenty-three individuals, according to Frontier Finance Corporation records, worked for Moeller Brothers Furniture Company of which FRANK BUCCIERI is an officer and major stockholder. Inquiry at Moeller Brothers Furniture Company reflected that only one of the above mentioned individuals had ever worked for Moeller Brothers.

Frontier Finance Corporation is limited by their license to a total loan of $800 or less to any one family. A number of obvious double loans exceeding $800 were observed in the records. For example, an $800 loan was made to [redacted] the next loan was an $800 loan to [redacted] a known alias of [redacted] (known hoodlum). An $800 loan was made to [redacted] the next loan was to [redacted] a known alias of [redacted] (known hoodlum).

The records reflect a large number of loans to hoodlums who are known to be engaged in the "juice" racket. It appears that Frontier Finance Corporation was a prime source of funds for individuals engaged in this racket. The sale of Frontier Finance Corporation will put a stop to bank funds being funneled into the juice racket through what appeared to be a respectable small loan finance company.

On September 20, 1963, [redacted] b6 b7C Attorney for Frontier Finance Corporation, advised that Frontier Finance Corporation had been sold to Mercantile Financial Corporation on that date. He stated that part of the agreement was that none of the stockholders could enter into the loan business within the city limits of Chicago for a period of three years.

4. Dominic Food Stores

CG T-2 on June 27, 1962, advised that FRANK BUCCIERI had reportedly recently acquired interests in the new Dominic Food Store chain which had sprung up on the North Side of Chicago and in several northwest suburbs.

5. Golf Club Management Company

The following article appeared in the Diamond Final Edition of the "Chicago American" newspaper issue of April 8, 1963:

"The names of Clarence (Biggie) Munn, Michigan State university athletic director, and Frank (Big Frank) Buccieri, a reputed crime syndicate gambling boss, have turned up associated in the same Chicago country club management company.

"Reached by phone at his home in East Lansing, Mich., Munn, a one-time All-America guard and former Spartan football coach, told 'Chicago's American' that he has met Buccieri only twice.

"The first time said Munn, was at a meeting of the five-member board of directors of the company, the Golf Club Management Company, Inc., about a year ago in McCormick Place.

"'Is He Really?'

"Sometime later, said Munn, Buccieri dropped in to see him in East Lansing when visiting his son, Kenneth Buccieri, 21, a sophomore at Michigan State.

"Asked if he knew Buccieri is reputed to be a top member of Chicago's crime syndicate, Munn paused for a moment, then replied in apparent astonishment:

"'Is he really?'

"Munn insisted that he knew Buccieri only as a business man with a financial interest in the Golf Club Management company. He said he had never heard of Buccieri's reported crime syndicate connections.

"President Denies Knowledge

"Loren A. Cameron, 38, president and principal owner of Golf Club Management company, 75 E. Wacker dr., also expressed astonishment when asked if he was aware of Buccieri's reputation.

"'I'm just floored', Cameron replied. 'This is news to me.'

"Cameron, a 1950 graduate of Michigan State, said he brought both Munn and Buccieri into his company when it was formed about three years ago.

"Wives Good Friends

"'They are both very good friends of mine', Cameron said. 'But I'm certain they hardly know each other.'

"Cameron said he met Munn during his school days at Michigan State and has kept up his contact ever since.

"'I met Frank on the golf course', Cameron added. 'Since then my wife and Frank's wife have become good friends, too.'

"'The four of us have been in each other's homes many times.'

"Lives in Park Ridge

"Buccieri, 44, lives at 1128 S. Greenwood Avenue, Park Ridge. Cameron has a house at Countryside lake, Mundelein, on the grounds of Countryside Golf club, which his company operates.

"'As far as I know, Frank is in the furniture business and one of the nicest guys I know', Cameron said. 'I have the highest respect for him.'

"Cameron described Buccieri as 'a real gentleman', then added:

"'How could I know (about his gangland connections)? He doesn't wear a sign.'

"Only One Conviction

"Buccieri's older brother Fiore (Fifi) Buccieri is a crime syndicate enforcer and close friend of Sam (Mooney) Giancana. Police say the brothers work together in the gambling and juice (high interest loan) rackets.

"Frank Buccieri's only conviction listed in police records was in 1936 when, at 17, he participated in a west side street robbery that netted him and his two accomplices $10.

"The case drew widespread attention when the judge in Boys' court permitted Frank's brother, Fiore, to lash Frank five times with a rubber hose in the court chambers in lieu of a 3-month jail sentence.

"Gave Up License

"In recent years, Frank Buccieri's activities have been investigated frequently by various law enforcement officials.

"In 1961, Buccieri voluntarily gave up his state license to operate the Post Finance company, 1272 Milwaukee av., after the attorney general began an investigation into his background.

"The company addressis the same as that of Moeller Bros. Furniture company, which Buccieri says he owns.

"Bribe Probe Figure

"Also in 1961, Frank Buccieri came to the attention of the Miami police department's intelligence unit in an investigation of the attempted bribe of a University of Oregon football player by Frank (Lefty) Rosenthal, a Miami gambler.

"The player, Halfback Mickey Bruce, testified before the Senate rackets subcommittee that in 1960 Rosenthal offered him $10,000 to throw the game with the University of Michigan, played at Ann Arbor.

"In the investigation, Miami police turned up long distance phone records showing that Rosenthal, a former Chicago resident, had called Frank Buccieri's home at least eight times in the 3 months prior to the attempted bribe.

"The records also showed Frank Buccieri called Rosenthal's Miami Beach apartment, which police found to be equipped with four pushbutton type phones able to handle a dozen calls at a time.

"Indicted in North Carolina

"Rosenthal, who pleaded the 5th amendment when asked by the Senate investigators about his relationship with Fiore Buccieri, has since been indicted by a North Carolina grand jury for trying to fix a college basketball game.

"Just 6 weeks ago, Frank Buccieri was again in the news, this time when police investigated his vacation flight to Spain and Portugal last fall in the company of Felix (Milwaukee Phil) Alderisio, 50, a crime syndicate terrorist and loan shark, and Charles Malek, a Chicago detective assigned to the robbery division.

"Malek said he did not know the gangsters were traveling on the same chartered air liner until the plane was over the Atlantic ocean.

"5,000 Miles in 2 Weeks

"Cameron, who has lived in the Chicago area since 1956, when he was hired to manage the Sunset Ridge country club in Northfield, told 'Chicago's American' that he knew nothing of Frank Buccieri's widely publicized activities.

"'I don't have time to read all that stuff', Cameron said: 'I'm so busy that I never see the newspapers during the week, and I just have time to look at the sports sections on Sunday.'

"During the last two weeks, Cameron said, he has traveled 5,000 miles in search of new clients to add to the list of 21 clubs now served by his company.

"Has 70 Pct. Interest

"Cameron, who said he owns 70 per cent of the stock in the Golf Club Management company, described Munn's and Buccieri's interest as nominal.

"'Biggie owns about 3 per cent of the stock and Frank has about 2 per cent', Cameron said. 'But I'm the only one who works.'

"Cameron said the company's net value is about $150,000, making Buccieri's interest worth about $3,000. 'That's not very much, is it?' Cameron added.

"Paid for Munn's Stock

"Cameron said he does not know how much Buccieri had paid for his stock, and he at first professed not to know how much Munn had paid, either.

"Informed that Munn had said he paid nothing for the stock, Cameron said:

"'That's right. I paid for Biggie's stock myself.'

"Cameron said Buccieri served only as an 'interim director' when the company was getting organized. 'I don't think Frank was on the board for more than six or eight weeks', Cameron added.

"Omitted in Report

"Altho Cameron said Munn is still a director, the latest annual report on file in the secretary of state's office at Springfield, dated Feb. 28, 1963, does not include his name.

"Cameron said he probably will ask Buccieri to sell his interest in the company to prevent further embarrassment.

"'I know Frank is the kind of guy who would understand if I talked it over with him', Cameron added. 'I'll probably buy him out.'"

6. Independent Loan Company

The following is part of a newspaper story that appeared in the "Chicago American" on February 27, 1964, under the title "Link Mobsters to Trio Seized in Juice Beating":

"Police intelligence experts began an examination of a north side loan outfit's records which reportedly contain more than $100,000 in active 'juice' loans, as three men were scheduled to appear in court on charges of beating and threatening to kill one of their delinquent debtos.

"The records were obtained by intelligence detectives thru a search warrant after the arrest Wednesday of the three accused loan sharks in the Independent Loan corporation office at 2015 N. Larrabee st.

"Seized were the firm's president, Joseph E. Greico, 36, of 4600 N. Overhill av., Norridge Park; his brother, Donald L., 26, the firm's secretary-treasurer who lives at 7701 Wilson av., Norridge, and Alfred A. Saigh, 45, 1219 Elmwood av., Berwyn, identified as 'the collector'.

"Name Higher-Ups

"A police official said the loan company's usurious operation is reportedly being financed and directed by two crime syndicate bosses, one of whom is in exile in Italy.

"The deported hoodlum was identified by intelligence detectives as Gaetano (Thomas) Morgano, 64, the father-in-law of Donald Greico and former crime syndicate chief of Indiana.

"The other is said to be Frank (Big Frank) Buccieri, 45, a juice and gambling chief who is heading the operation in place of his brother, Fiore (Fifi) Buccieri, 56, now recuperating from a heart ailment.

"Morgano was deported to his native Sicily on August 10, 1959, by the bureau of immigration and naturalization after a long battle...."

7. Vic Damone Pizza Corp.

The following newspaper story appeared in the "Chicago Daily News" on March 2, 1964, under the caption "Singer Vic Damone Faces 'Juice' Quiz":

"Police said Monday they plan to ask singer Vic Damone why three loan sharks with syndicate connections are officers in the Vic Damone Pizza Corp. here.

"Damone, a Hollywood resident, is listed as president of the firm in records at the Illinois secretary of state's office.

"ONE OF the loan sharks is Frank Buccieri, 45, of 1028 S. Greenwood, Park Ridge, who police say is running West Side gambling for his brother Fiori Buccieri.

"Fiori Buccieri is considered the No. 1 mob loan shark figure in the city.

"Frank Buccieri was listed as a director of the pizza firm, when it received a state charter Sept. 13, 1962.

"THE OTHER two juicemen are Joseph E. Grieco, 36, of 4600 Overhill, Norridge, and his brother, Donald, 26, of 7701 Wilson, Norridge.

"Both are operators of the Independent Factoring Corp., a loan firm at 2015 N. Larrabee that shares offices with the pizza firm, and both were arrested last week in the beating of a loan shark victim.

"Donald Grieco is listed as secretary-treasurer of the Damone firm and Joseph is listed as a director.

"Joseph Grieco is president of the factoring firm, successor to the unchartered Independent Loan Corp., and Donald is secretary-treasurer. Gildo Mazzolin was listed as a director when the firm was chartered by the state Aug. 22, 1962...."

8. Buccaneer Night Club

A "Chicago Sun-Times" newspaper article on December 31, 1964, entitled "Link Mobsters, Old Town Cafe in Vydra Probe" reads in part as follows:

"At the same time, the Chicago Police Intelligence Division, following leads in the Vydra case, uncovered the roles of two gang loan sharks in an Old Town cafe, the Buccaneer, 1653 N. Wells.

"At the Buccaneer, police said, both of the mob moneylenders, Joseph and Don Grieco, used the name of 'Emery.'

"It was disclosed that Joseph Grieco hired entertainers for the Buccaneer, including Vydra's protege, Jane Darwyn, 27, a brunet chanteuse.

"That was confirmed by Miss Darwyn when she appeared at the Cook County Morgue at an inquest into Vydra's death. She told a Sun-Times reporter:

"'Joe Emery hired me to sing at the Buccaneer.'

"Moreover, Intelligence Division detectives found Joseph Grieco had posed as the Buccaneer liquor licensee, Joseph Viola, in negotiations over entertainers' salaries with the American Guild of Variety Artists.

"Order License Probe

"The findings of the Intelligence Division caused police officials to order an inquiry into possibly subterfuge in the licensing of the Buccaneer.

"The Grieco brothers are awaiting trial on charges of beating a borrower who had fallen behind in payments of 'juice' (exorbitant interest) on a loan.

"A city food license held by Joseph Grieco was revoked by Mayor Daley last March on the ground that Grieco was unfit to hold the license."

A "Chicago Sun-Times" story on February 3, 1965, entitled "Act Against N. Side Club Linked to Loan Sharks" reflects the following information:

The city moved to revoke the liquor license of the Buccaneer on Tuesday on the ground that crime syndicate loan charks are the secret owners. JOSEPH VIOLA, the licensee of the club, was directed to appear at a revocation hearing on February 15. A summons served on VIOLA charged that he held the Buccaneer license as a subterfuge for the GRICCO brothers.

a "Chicago Sun-Times" newspaper article on March 12, 1965, entitled "Mayor Orders Full Investigation Into Buccaneer License Case" reflected the following information:

An unusual investigation was ordered by Mayor DALEY into the reason why the Buccaneer license had not been revoked instead of only suspended for 15 days. DALEY reportedly said that he himself would study the transcript of the license revocation hearing in the case.

An article in the "Chicago Daily News" on May 17, 1965, entitled "Buccaneer, 8 Other Bars Shut", reflected that Mayor RICHARD J. DALEY had revoked the liquor license of the Buccaneer, 1653 North Wells, on that date.

DETAILS:

The "Chicago Tribune" on July 27, 1966, carried the following story:

"Wife of Frank Buccieri Sues"

"Frank P. Buccieri, 46, reputed gambling figure and crime syndicate loan shark, was named defendant in a suit for separate maintenance filed in Circuit Court yesterday by Mrs. Edna M. Buccieri, 45, of 2020 W. Arthur Av., Park Ridge.

"The suit, prepared by Atty. Charles C. Cooley, alleged he has annual income of $75,000 and that he has made large gifts to another woman, identified only as Mary Roe. The suit alleges more than $50,000 of loans he has made to individuals has not been repaid, that he is part owner of Moeller Brothers, Inc., furniture company at 1272 Milwaukee Av., and that the family home is valued at $85,000.

"The suit charges Buccieri had threatened to dispose of his assets if Mrs. Buccieri filed the suit, and she has asked an injunction restraining him from doing so."

FD-302 (Rev. 4-15-64)

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

JOSEPH FERRIOLA
DAVE YARAS
FRAN. BUCCIERI
FRANK "LEFTY" ROSENTHAL

As the agents walked towards the room, [redacted] who was lounging in the locker room, called a warning in Italian to those in the room.

The agents had a brief conversation with JOSEPH FERRIOLA during which time FERRIOLA advised that FIORE BUCCIERI was not at the YMCA but that he would probably go to Giannotti's Lounge for dinner that night.

FRANK BUCCIERI accused SA [redacted] of breaking up his home by having subpoenaed his girl friend before the Federal Grand Jury last spring. He said that he had not seen any of his children for five months.

YARAS and ROSENTHAL did not say anything and were obviously hoping that the agents did not know who they were.

[redacted] Riverside Country Club, Des Plaines Avenue, Riverside, Illinois, was contacted by SAs EUGENE I. SATHER and [redacted] on September 22, 1966. [redacted] was asked if any group was having a golf outing at the club on that date. [redacted] stated that [redacted] also known as [redacted], a member of the club, had sponsored a group of about 50 for dinner and probably a smaller amount for golf on that day. He said [redacted] is allowed to have six guests and that he obtained the permission of several other members to let him use their guest privileges for that day.

[redacted] checked their membership book which reflected the following information concerning [redacted]

Residence [redacted] Illinois
Telephone FA 3-7832

Employed Norge Chicago Sales
7330 West Montrose.

[redacted] stated, however, that [redacted] was no longer with Norge and that his business telephone number was now 944-4941 (listed to Risner Travel Agency, Inc., 43 East Oak, Chicago).

[redacted] stated that [redacted] had made arrangements for dinner at 6:00 - 6:30 p.m. at $6.25 per dinner, and for cocktails at 5:00 p.m.

She said she has not seen FRANK for months and that her only contact with him has been through [redacted] She said FRANK has actually been living two seperate lives and the fact that he was leading a double life has come as a great shock to her and her family.

She said FRANK has always been a good husband and father of their children. She said it may be hard to believe but that she knew abolutely nothing of FRANK's hoodlum activities. She stated she was always telling FRANK that he should try to persuade his brother (FIORE BUCCIERI) to get out of the rackets.

She said that it was January, 1966, when the information about FRANK's paramour, [redacted] had been in the newspapers. She stated that FRANK had taken her to Las Vegas at the time and then sent her to Florida to play some golf. She stated that although everyone knew about it, no one would tell her, and it was not until July, 1966, when she learned about it from her 89 year old mother.

CG T-1 said that plans were being made for a large amount of bookmaking action to take place at the Chicago Stadium for the triple-header basketball game on January 28, 1967. CG T-1 said individuals controling this bookmaking action would be DONALD ANGELINI and FRANK BUCCIERI.

CG T-1 said that in connection with bookmaking at the Chicago Stadium for the Blackhawk hockey games, FRANK BUCCIERI, JOE FERRIOLA, and [redacted] have two seats in the mezzanine section on aisle four and two seats in section C in the box seat section on the Madison Avenue side.

CG T-1 said that an associate of BUCCIERI and ANGELINI is FRANK "LEFTY" ROSENTHAL, well known gambler and sports handicapper.

CG T-2 on January 30, 1967, furnished the following information:

CG T-2 advised that [redacted] Coroner's Office of Cook County, Illinois. [redacted] is reportedly a close associate of FRANK BUCCIERI and is als[redacted] reportedly has an interest in the Rapid Business Service, 905 South Western in Chicago, which is an income tax service firm. CG T-3 on March 8, 1967, advised that FRANK BUCCIERI has an interest in Casanova's, a bar located in the Maryland Hotel. [redacted] is the front for this operation.

CG T-3 advised that [redacted] also known as [redacted] has been spending some time at Casanova's.

CG T-4 on March 6, 1967, furnished the following information:

CG T-4 stated that FRANK BUCCIERI had made the arrangements for the dinner dance sponsored by the Santa Fe Saddle and Gun Club to be held at the Edgewater Beach Hotel on March 25, 1967. This dinner dance was originally scheduled to be held at the Villa Venice nightclub but because of the recent fire at the club, the affair had to be scheduled somewhere else. b6 b7C

It is to be noted that the Santa Fe Saddle and Gun Club is made up entirely of friends and associates of FIORE and FRANK BUCCIERI and their lieutenants.

CG T-5 on March 21, 1967, advised that FIORE and FRANK BUCCIERI are having [redacted] of T. A. Capalety Builders, 7630 Madison Street, Forest Park, build a high-rise apartment building on land owned by [redacted] on Golf Road near Milwaukee Avenue.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

At 8:00 p.m. on June 2, 1967, SAs EUGENE I. SATHER and [redacted] had a conversation with the following individuals who were having dinner at Chiam's Restaurant, 2323 South Wentworth, Chicago:

FIORE BUCCIERI
[redacted]
JAMES TORELLO
[redacted]
FRANK BUCCIERI

During the conversation the following items of possible interest were said:

b6

[redacted] stated that the Chicago Police had recovered all but about 18 guns that had been recently stolen in the burglary of his gun store. [redacted] said the police had received an anonymous call that the guns were under some wood behind a certain house and they had gone there and recovered them. FIORE BUCCIERI said why should someone return the guns and just keep 18 of them. He stated that he believes all the guns were recovered and that the police officers took the 18 guns for their own use.

SA [redacted] made the statement that he believed the guns were returned because the thieves had received word that the guns belonged to "the outfit" and that they had better be returned "or else." FIORE BUCCIERI and JAMES TORELLO both laughed but did not say anything.

FIORE BUCCIERI said that SAM BATTAGLIA's recent conviction was merely for association and that WILLIE DADDANO was presently on trial in Federal District Court, Chicago, just because of association. He said neither one had anything to do with the actual crimes.

On 6/2/67 at Chicago, Illinois File # CG 92-1160

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

FRANK BUCCIERI said FIORE would not have a chance if he went to court, that the newspapers would convict him.

FIORE BUCCIERI said some thieves wanted to go along on their last hunting trip to Montana, but that they would not let them come along for fear they might be convicted "just for association."

FIORE BUCCIERI mentioned that his house and car insurance had just been cancelled for no reason. He said he had never made any claims, and in fact when his car had been bumped while parked at Connie's Restaurant he had not submitted a claim.

[redacted] said all of his insurance had also been cancelled for no reason. He said he had been with this insurance company for about twenty years and had not made any claims during that time.

FRANK BUCCIERI said [redacted] was now out of the Green Beret unit of the Army and had recently become married. FRANK BUCCIERI said he had planned on having a reception for his son at the Edgewater Beach Hotel but that he had dropped these plans rather than further embarrass his son with unfavorable newspaper publicity.

FRANK BUCCIERI said his daughter was going to a prom on that night and that at 11:00 p.m. he had to meet her and her date, a boy named [redacted] at the Empire Room of the Palmer House so that he could arrange a good table and other things for them.

FRANK BUCCIERI complained that the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) had made it impossible for him to get bank financing for legitimate business enterprises even though his credit rating has always been good. FRANK BUCCIERI said he is "no dummy" and that he knows more money can be made legitimately than illegitimately, but that bank financing was necessary with any business.

FRANK BUCCIERI said that if the FBI had not knocked him out of Frontier Finance Company that today he would be a rich man with a chain of finance companies.

FRANK BUCCIERI said that although he highly respects his wife he can not return to live with her now that she knows he was keeping a mistress. He said things could never be the same between them and that in the long run he knows she would only be further hurt if he returned to live with her.

FD-302 (Rev. 4-15-64)

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date July 3, 1967

The following observations were made on June 27, 1967:

12:15 PM

FRANK BUCCIERI was driving a dark green Oldsmobile sedan, bearing 1967 Illinois license plates, 506-867, on North Avenue at Ninth Avenue, Melrose Park, Illinois. He drove west on North Avenue.

12:21 PM

BUCCIERI was last observed at the corner of 25th Avenue and North Avenue proceeding west on North Avenue.

The records of the Illinois Secretary of State's Office show that license 506-867 is listed to Car Leasing Inc., P.O. Box 293, Melrose Park, Illinois

Date 1/22/68

On the afternoon of January 15, 1968, Special Agents EUGENE I. SATHER and [redacted] had a conversation with FRANK BUCCIERI at Antoinette's Grill, 4749 West Roosevelt Road, Cicero, Illinois. During this conversation BUCCIERI admitted that in past years he had been engaged in gambling enterprises. He said that at that time gambling was condoned by politicians and the police, and in fact that gambling cannot operate without cooperation from politicians and police.

BUCCIERI said that the FBI had destroyed the gambling business in Chicago, and that gambling in Chicago, today is on a very small scale. He said that anyone operating in Chicago, today as they did a few years ago is crazy.

BUCCIERI said that at the present time he is not doing anything wrong, that he does not intend to violate any laws, and that his only fear is that the FBI might involve him in some conspiracy case on manufactured or perjured testimony.

BUCCIERI said he wished the FBI and other law enforcement agencies would let him operate a legitimate business without harassment. He stated that more money can be made in legitimate business than can be made by illegitimate enterprises. BUCCIERI stated that because of newspaper publicity he can no longer get credit at banks and his insurance has been cancelled. b6 b7C

He said that if it had not been for the FBI's investigation of Frontier Finance Company, this company would still be in business and he would have expanded it into a chain of finance companies. He said that if he could obtain bank loans he would have expanded Moeller Brothers Furniture Company into several stores.

BUCCIERI said he was the only one in his family that finished high school. He stated he has a good business mind, knows how to handle people, and knows that big money can be made in almost any business which is operated properly.

On 1/15/68 at Cicero, Illinois File # CG 92-1998

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

BUCCIERI stated that "ZITEK" of the Intelligence Unit had learned that [redacted] was working as an assistant maitre'de at the Mariott restaurant in Park Ridge. ZITEK's investigation led to [redacted] being fired from this job. BUCCIERI said that this was wrong and that if [redacted] could not work legitimately he would have to resort ot the illegal activities in order to support his family.

BUCCIERI said he felt the FBI and other law enforcement agencies were becoming so strong that they were now becoming an evil force. He felt the FBI had become vindictive and were pushing for high sentences, on any Italian convicted of a crime, far in excess to what the crime called for.

b7C

He said some of the witnesses used to convict these Italians have been terrible criminals who are far worse than the individuals they are testifying against, and yet they are getting off free or with extremely light sentences.

BUCCIERI stated he does not believe a "stool pidgeon" should be hurt and that it would be far worse on them to have to live with themselves.

SA [redacted] asked BUCCIERI what he would do if he knew the whereabouts of [redacted] whose testimony had recently convicted numerous Italian thieves and hoodlums who were well known tp BUCCIERI. BUCCIERI's only reply was "look at the number of people he has hurt."

CG T-1 on January 19, 1968, advised that FIORE BUCCIERI, JAMES TORELLO, and FRANK BUCCIERI were at the Duncan YMCA Executive Club on the night of January 16, 1968.

At 11:55 AM on January 19, 1968, SAs EUGENE I. SATHER and [redacted] observed subject's black over green 1967 Toronado with Illinois 1967 license 506 867, and [redacted] rust colored Thunderbird Ford bearing Illinois 1967 license [redacted] parked in the parking lot behind [redacted] Illinois.

JOSEPH RUSCETTI
[redacted]

SA's SATHER and [redacted] had a conversation with the above individuals during which time the following statements of possible interest were made. [redacted] said he had been JAMES TORELLO's doctor when TORELLO was in the West Suburban Hospital with stomach ulcers several years ago. He also said he had treated TORELLO's wife [redacted] and that he was currently FIORE BUCCIERI's doctor.

Both FIORE BUCCIERI and JAMES TORELLO were well tanned and said they had recently returned from a vacation in Florida. TORELLO said they had not taken their wives or children with them on this trip.

SA [redacted] asked why [redacted] was not with the group on this night. FRANK BUCCIERI said "he has only eaten with us on a few occasions."

Around 11:00 P. M. [redacted] entered the restaurant and sat down at the table with the above individuals.

220 W. Thomas Street, Hammond, La., on 3/13/68, [redacted], furnished the following information to SA TROY H. GIST:

She is married to [redacted] born [redacted] in Bronx, N.Y., [redacted] heavy build, very dark brown hair, who was born [redacted] but the family had their names legally changed in 1946-47, and her husband came out with above name. They moved to [redacted] N.Y., [redacted] in June, 1964, and [redacted] CALIF. ILL. insofar as she knows, [redacted] used his own funds to open this business.

Within the first year they were in N.Y., [redacted] entered the picture. [redacted] went to Los Angeles, California, to work with [redacted] on a picture. He met MANNY SCAR, a friend of FRANKIE's. [redacted] b6 b7C b7D

During August, 1966, [redacted] got in trouble with the Bronx County DA because of his association in business [redacted]

[redacted]

[redacted]

b6
b7C
b7D

When [redacted] went to Chicago in latter August, 1967, he returned talking about "Big Frank" what a fine person he was and how he is idolized, saying that when he goes to restaurants the waiters kiss his hands. He said "Big Frank" liked him well enough to do anything he wanted done. She believes "Big Frank" is FRANK BUCCIERI because she got his name from [redacted] small black address book, as well as his address.

[redacted]

[redacted]

About November, 1966, two men came to their home on 43[redacted] N.Y., and talked to [redacted] After they left she asked him who they were and he said "Don't ask anything and don't say anything. Those men are from [redacted] they came to help me." He said they were in the auto business. One was a WM, silver-haired, 5' 9-10", medium build, 50-55, and meticulously dressed. This was shortly after the trouble with [redacted] said he needed a new supplier for his autos so she believes they were his new auto contacts; they were from New Jersey. To her knowledge, [redacted] is still in the auto business, at least he was as of 1/23/68. He has the autos worked on in Long Island somewhere.

[redacted] Manhattan, a bookkeeper, formerly worked [redacted] and can furnish a great deal of information regarding him if he will talk. He once wrote her a letter and told her how much he loved [redacted]

[redacted] in 1965, when he was in California, making a picture. She was present when [redacted] he wanted some man worked over. [redacted] left and she heard he did work over this man, who was the husband of a secretary in [redacted] office. This man had beat up [redacted] secretary and [redacted] had him beat up.

[redacted]

She said [redacted] N.Y. knows [redacted] and has heard him boast of his connections with these men.

From [redacted] address book she got the names and addresses as follows:

[redacted] - Originally from Los Angeles, but believed residing [redacted] Ill.

[redacted] Ill.

[redacted] Ill.

[redacted] N.Y.

She said [redacted] She has two return receipts signed by him.

b6
b7C
b7D

She has heard [redacted] of having dinner many times in the homes of these men and with SAM GIANCANA, Chicago, Illinois. [redacted] trips to Las Vegas, Nevada. He also operates a mail order house for general merchandise and sex books. She thinks the U. S. Post Office has a "cease and desist" order against him on these books, but he still sends them out to customers. She heard him say he has made a lewd movie with some girl, but she never was able to see or get possession of it.

[redacted] is not insane, but had been in under a great mental strain from living in fear of these people [redacted] who wears a gun all the time and apparently is a sex pervert. He said she is represented in N.Y. by [redacted] Northcourt Bldg., White Plains, N.Y., and has [redacted] with her at this time. He feels she needs police protection when she returns to N.Y. in April, to testify in court in White Plains, N.Y.

CG 92-1998

It is to be noted that JOSEPH FERRIOLA, aka., Joe Nagall, is a lieutenant of FIORE BUCCIERI and is a close associate of FRANK BUCCIERI who is well known as "BIG FRANK." The nick names of "The Cigar" and "Indian Joe" probably refer to JOSEPH FERRIOLA.

JOSEPH FERRIOLA currently resides at 270 S. Cote Road, Riverside, Illinois, and FRANK BUCCIERI formerly resided at 1028 S. Greenwood, Park Ridge, Illinois.

Date May 24, 1968

At 10:10 a.m. Special Agent [redacted] observed [redacted] leave Connie's Restaurant at 3271 South Harlem, Berwyn, Illinois, and drive off in a white over black Ford Mustang Convertible bearing Illinois 1968 license [redacted] registered to [redacted] Illinois on a 1967 Ford).

Special Agent [redacted] entered the restaurant and observed FIORE BUCCIERI and [redacted] sitting together in the same booth. BUCCIERI invited Special Agent [redacted] to sit down with them. BUCCIERI and [redacted] talked about how they were trimming trees at the Santa Fe Saddle and Gun Club on the previous day. [redacted] said he got there just in time for the spahgetti dinner and BUCCIERI commented that "they" drank up all the wine.

BUCCIERI advised that he had testified before the Smathers Senate Committee on small business loans in Washington D.C. on May 16, 1968. He said he had plead the Fifth Ammendment and refused to testify and in this connection said "what else could I do." BUCCIERI said his attorney [redacted] had arranged for a young attorney in Washington to represent him. He said he had only spent one night in Washington and had not gone anywhere in the city. He said that after he testified the earliest plane he could get back to Chicago was about 3:30 p.m. he took a shuttle flight to New York in order to get an earlier plane for Chicago.

b7C

Special Agent [redacted] mentioned that he heard that his brother FRANK had been in the hospital. BUCCIERI said FRANK had been in the hospital twice with severe pains on the side of his head. On his second hospital stay a doctor discovered both of his sinuses were completely plugged up and when these were opened FRANK felt much better.

BUCCIERI said that FRANK will not talk to him and whenever he runs into him, FRANK will say hello and will then disappear. He said FRANK will not take his advice and seems to feel that because of his education he knows more than FIORE.

Special Agent [redacted] mentioned that he heard FRANK was scared to death of FIORE. BUCCIERI said he did not know why, he said that he had never hit him and had never threatened him. He said FRANK is 50 years old, who am I to be telling him what to do.

BUCCIERI said he had "beat up" his brother [redacted] on several occasions and that [redacted] has given him trouble all his life.

BUCCIERI said that he had forced FRANK to get an education and that he had all the Jewish merchants in the old neighborhood reporting to him when they saw Frank with any bad characters. BUCCIERI said he had obtained all FRANK's jobs for him.

BUCCIERI said FRANK should go back to his wife, and that his wife had told FRANK to come home and live and that he could go out anytime he wanted to.

BUCCIERI stated that the Duncan YMCA is trying to push FRANK BUCCIERI, JAMES TORELLO, DONALD ANGELINI, ANTHONY SPILOTRO and himself out of the Executive Club of the YMCA. He said they originally wanted [redacted] to leave, but that he threatened to sue and they replaced him with SPILOTRO. BUCCIERI said the Executive Club Committee is fighting the expulsion of these members.

Date June 14, 1968

Observations at the Golden Bear Pancake House, North Avenue, River Forest, Illinois on 6-11-68 at 9:34 AM revealed that FRANK BUCCIERI, drove into the parking area of this restaurant from the alley south of the restaurant and parked a late model Oldsmobile bearing 1968 Illinois license [redacted] and entered the restaurant. He was shortly thereafter noted to be seated at the counter with an unknown male who was in constant conversation with BUCCIERI.

The unknown male was overheard to make a comment to the effect that when you get a little money then something happens. To this BUCCIERI clearly stated "Do you need some help". To this the unknown male said no. Shortly thereafter BUCCIERI was heard to say he was to be in California "a couple of days.....you be home all week??? At your Webster number???" To this theunknown male said "Wellington", following by what appeared to be "WE-5-9555" b6 b7C

At 10:31 AM BUCCIERI and the unknown male left the reataurant, stood for two or three minutes talking at the BUCCIERI car, when the unknown male left walking East on North Avenue for ten or fifteen yards, crossing to the north side of North Avenue, into the Midwest Bank parking lot where he entered a tan late model Oldsmobile bearing 1968 Illinois license [redacted] and proceded north on 72nd Court, Elmwood Park, Illinois.

Records of the Secretary of State, State of Illinois, disclose that 1968 Illinois license [redacted] is listed to [redacted] Chicago, Ill.

This information was immediately sent to Las Vegas where SA [redacted] observed BUCCIERI arrive at McCarran Airport with an unknown man and white female, 25 to 28, 5'7", 130 lbs., long, black, wavy hair, fair complexion. b6 b7C BUCCIERI went to Caesar's Palace where he was observed in the company of JOSEPH FERRIOLA and a white female, 5'5", 120 lbs., blonde hair, light complexion.

At 10:45 p.m. August 3, 1968 Detectives [redacted] Clark County Sheriff's Office, arrested BUCCIERI and FERRIOLA at Caesar's Palace.

BUCCIERI stated his name was FRANK WHITE from San Francisco, California, and refused to divulge any other information to the officers at that time. BUCCIERI stated that he had no identification papers in his possession whatsoever. The officers advised BUCCIERI they were arresting him for vagrancy and no identification papers at which time BUCCIERI then admitted his name and the fact that he was from Chicago and tried to bargain with the arresting officers to keep out of jail.

FERRIOLA identified himself to the officers as Mr. LONG from Chicago and declined to furnish any other information.

BUCCIERI and FERRIOLA were placed under arrest and charged with Vagrancy - No Identification (Refusal to Account for Presence and Actions). Neither BUCCIERI nor FERRIOLA could understand how he could be arrested when he had $2,000 in his possession at the time. Both individuals were handcuffed and taken out of Caesar's Palace where they were transported to the Clark County Sheriff's Office.

The arresting officers advised that BUCCIERI, even though he did not like being arrested, photographed, and fingerprinted, was taking the arrest philosophically. FERRIOLA, on the other hand, refused to be photographed or fingerprinted, and he was placed in a jail cell. FERRIOLA subsequently agreed to be fingerprinted but stated that absolutely no photographs would be taken of him. The jail sergeant on duty, [redacted] at approximately midnight, August 3, 1968, had FERRIOLA fingerprinted and one photograph of FERRIOLA was taken surreptitiously. When efforts were made to have FERRIOLA sit for the standard mug shot, he hit jail sergeant [redacted] in the right eye with his fist. As a result of this, FERRIOLA was also charged with assault and battery of a police officer, photographed, stripped of his clothes, and placed in a padded cell. FERRIOLA was highly incensed at this and stated that he had never been treated like this by any police department.

b7C

BUCCIERI stated at the time of his arrest while at the jail that the only person he knew at Caesar's Palace was [redacted] Shortly after the arrest, [redacted] Caesar's Palace, telephonically called the Clark County Sheriff's Office jail and stated that the hotel would post bail and that someone from the hotel would immediately drive to the Clark County Sheriff's Office jail to post bond for BUCCIERI.

BUCCIERI subsequently arrived at the Clark County Sheriff's Office jail the following morning at 9:30 a.m., August 4, 1968, in a Caesar's Palace automobile where he secured FERRIOLA's release and both BUCCIERI and FERRIOLA were driven from the jail to McCarran Airport where they were leaving for Chicago.

At the time of BUCCIERI's arrest, he gave his address as 220 West Osborne, Park Ridge, Illinois; age 49; 6'1"; 200 lbs.; brown eyes; hair dyed black; date of birth 1/23/19, Chicago, Illinois; self-employed, furniture store; nearest relative [redacted] wife, same address. BUCCIERI has false teeth. At the time of his arrest the only identification he had in his possession was his Social Security Number 352-01-0204 (card). Also in his possession he had $2,440. The jail telephone log reflects that on August 3, 1968, BUCCIERI called [redacted] at Caesar's Palace, a friend. BUCCIERI was released on bail of $25 posted by the defendant, JP #034677, to appear August 5, 1968, at 2:00 p.m.

JOSEPH FERRIOLA

JOSEPH ANTHONY FERRIOLA gave his address as 270 South Cote Road, Riverside, Illinois; 41 years of age; 5'10"; 210 lbs.; brown eyes; black hair; date of birth 3/16/27, Chicago, Illinois; self-employed in cleaning business; nearest relative, none given. FERRIOLA had $2,205 at the time of his arrest. FERRIOLA was released on bond, August 4, 1968, after ABC Bail Bonds posted $50 on the charge of Vagrancy and No

NCI

Identification, JP #028938, and released on $500 bond, ABC Bail Bonds, JP #028937, on the charge of Assault and Battery of a Police Officer. In both instances, FERRIOLA was to appear on August 5, 1968, at 2:00 p.m. At the time of his release, FERRIOLA refused to sign for his property and when he found out he would not be released until he did so, he signed.

BUCCIERI was registered in room 1378 at Caesar's Palace as FRANK WHITE of 1272 Milton Street, Peoria, Illinois. His registration card bore the notation that his name was FRANK BRUNO from Chicago and the hotel room, food and beverages were to be complimentary on authority of [redacted]

FERRIOLA was in room 1376 which is a connecting room to room 1378, and he and the unknown blonde female had been registered as Mr. and Mrs. J. LONG, 6024 Roosevelt Street, Peoria, Illinois. The room, food and beverages were to be complimentary on authority of [redacted] Caesar's Palace. b6 b7C

[redacted] Security, Caesar's Palace, advised the Clark County Sheriff's Office that both BUCCIERI and FERRIOLA would be taken to McCarran Airport as soon as FERRIOLA's release was secured where they would return to Chicago.

On October 21, 1968, Lieutenant [redacted] Clark County Sheriff's Office, advised SA [redacted] that on August 5, 1968, FRANK BUCCIERI failed to appear in Justice of the Peace Court in Las Vegas and his $25 cash bond posted on the charge of vagrancy was forfeited.

CG T-1 on October 24, 1968, advised that on that date FRANK BUCCIERI and JOSEPH FERRIOLA had applied for passports. They were brought to the Passport Office by [redacted] of Nitti Travel Service, 1162 West Grand, Chicago.

The passport application of BUCCIERI revealed the following information:

On March 27, 1969, Sergeant [redacted] Chicago Police Department, advised that he and several associates conducted a physical surveillance on December 2, 1968, on Lulu's Red Hot Snack Shop, 1000 South Leavitt, Chicago, Illinois. He said this restaurant is owned and operated by the mother of [redacted] b6 b7C [redacted] advised that an individual driving an Oldsmobile Toronado with Illinois 1968 license HG 530 was observed to visit this restaurant. HG 530 is registered to Car Leasing Company and is known to be driven by FRANK BUCCIERI.

CG T-1 on June 6, 1969, advised that FRANK BUCCIERI has been spending time at the Banquet-On-A-Bun on Rush Street which is owned by [redacted] CG T-1 said that BUCCIERI drives a two door Oldsmobile Toronado with Illinois 1969 license 527 776 (registered to Car Leasing, Incorporated, 1915 West Division, Melrose Park, Illinois).

An article in the "Chicago Tribune" on July 3, 1969, stated that The Executive Club at the Duncan YMCA had been closed and the facilities turned over to regular members. The article stated "although the club was made up mostly of respectable business, it had been infiltrated by mobsters, headed by FIORE (FIFI) BUCCIERI and his brother FRANK."

The Las Vegas Office on July 18, 1969, advised that the Clark County Sheriff's Office, Intelligence Detail, arrested FRANK BUCCIERI in the casino of the Stardust Hotel, Las Vegas, shortly after midnight on the morning of July 18, 1969. BUCCIERI was charged with vagrancy and released on $25 bond five hours later. BUCCIERI was staying in Room 3006 at the Frontier Hotel. BUCCIERI was to appear in court on the vagrancy charge at 2:00 p.m. on July 18, 1969, but he failed to do so.

On June 15, 1970, [redacted] Investigator, Illinois Crime Commission, furnished the following information regarding SALLY A. PAPIA, the girlfriend of FRANK BUCCIERI:

[redacted] advised that SALLY PAPIA resides at 447 North Story Parkway, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, telephone 771-0104. She is the owner of Sally's Steakhouse, 1028 East Juneau Avenue, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, telephone 272-5363. He further advised that Sally's Steakhouse is located in the Knickerbocker on the Lake Hotel in Milwaukee.

She has been observed driving a 1968 black vinyl over black Cadillac 4-door bearing 1970 Wisconsin tags P 89.

[redacted] advised that he had received additional information that FRANK BUCCIEREI is attempting to negotiate a business deal with SALLY PAPIA in order that he may become a partner in her steakhouse.

CG T-1 on June 22, 1970, advised that FRANK BUCCIERI visits his girlfriend in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, on almost every Saturday, Sunday, and Monday. BUCCIERI then returns to Chicago where he stays the balance of the week. CG T-1 said BUCCIERI frequently plays golf at Fresh Meadows and Timber Trails Country Clubs. b6 b7C

CG T-2 on July 17, 1970, advised that FRANK BUCCIERI had been observed in the Chicago area on July 16, 1970, driving a white Cadillac convertible with black top, bearing 1970 Wisconsin license K576.

It is to be noted that FRANK BUCCIERI while at the Canyon Hotel, Palm Springs, California, on April 2, 1970, had called telephone number 276-6205 in Los Angeles, California.

The Los Angeles Office advised that the above telephone number is subscribed to by the Belcourt Artist Agency, 226 North Canon Drive, Room 210, Beverly Hills, California.

This agency is operated by one [redacted] a well known theatrical booking agent, who is known to associate with several Los Angeles hoodlums.

The following investigation was conducted by Special Agent (SA) DANIEL E. BRANDT of the Milwaukee Office:

On July 10, 1970, SA BRANDT contacted Detective [redacted] Milwaukee Police Department (PD). [redacted] was advised that BUCCIERI's Illinois Driver's License had been revoked and that BUCCIERI had surrendered his driver's license on April 7, 1970.

[redacted] who is directly concerned with the matter of BUCCIERI's frequent visits to Milwaukee, advised after a search of his records that there was no indication that BUCCIERI had been observed by members of the Milwaukee PD driving a motor vehicle since April 7, 1970. [redacted] further advised that the late model, light blue Thunderbird which in the past had been operated by BUCCIERI has not been seen lately in Milwaukee. He indicated BUCCIERI has been seen since April 7, 1970, in a 1967-68 four-door, black Cadillac, bearing 1970 Wisconsin License P-89, which is registered to SALLY PAPIA at the above address [redacted] also noted that PAPIA is now also driving a 1970 white Cadillac convertible with a black top bearing 1970 Wisconsin License [redacted] This Cadillac convertible is registered to Sally's Steakhouse, Knickerbocker Hotel, Milwaukee, Wisconsin. b6 b7C

[redacted] stated that his observations of BUCCIERI since April 7, 1970, have disclosed him in either of the above Cadillacs; however, these vehicles were driven by SALLY PAPIA or her [redacted]

[redacted] advised that his frequent conversations with SALLY PAPIA in the past two months have disclosed no information to the effect that BUCCIERI has any money invested in Sally's Steakhouse, Knickerbocker Hotel, Milwaukee, Wsiconsin.

DETAILS:

CG T1 on August 31, 1970, advised that FRANK BUCCIERI was reportedly going to Lake Geneva over the weekend of August 29-30, 1970. He was to be accompanied by either [redacted] or HERBERT BLITZSTEIN. They were going to Lake Geneva to reportedly look into business venture involving a lounge.

CG T2 on September 3, 1970, advised that FRANK BUCCIERI was with his girlfriend, SALLY PAPIA, every weekend. CG T2 said that PAPIA's restaurant in Milwaukee is closed on Sundays and that BUCCIERI and PAPIA frequently have dinner together on Sunday nights at Giannotti's Restaurant, Forest Park, Illinois.

CG T2 on September 16, 1970, advised that FRANK BUCCIERI had just spent two weeks at the Playboy Club in Lake Geneva. BUCCIERI was reportedly planning on going to the west coast.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

CG T3 on November 16, 1970, advised that a week or two ago FRANK BUCCIERI, JAMES TORELLO and [redacted] had gone to Sandstone, Minnesota, to visit JOSEPH FERRIOLA who is in the United States Penitentiary there. b6 b7C

CG T2 on November 18, 1970, advised that FRANK BUCCIERI is reportedly going to marry SALLY PAPIA around Christmas time and go to Mexico for their honeymoon.

The following newspaper story appeared in the Milwaukee Journal, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, on December 3, 1970, under the title "Sally Papia to Wed Brother of Mobster."

"Mrs. Sally Papia, who runs Sally's Steak House here, and Frank Buccieri, brother of one of Chicago's most important hoodlums, will be married Jan. 4.

"Mrs. Papia, 38, of 447 N. Story Pkwy., and Buccieri, 52, of Chicago, said they had intended to be married before Christmas, but surgery on her back prevented that.

"Mrs. Papia said she was uncertain about details of the wedding plans.

"'He's making the arrangements,' she said. 'I don't think it will be in a church. You know we've both been married before.'

"Buccieri and Mrs. Papia are divorced.

"Mrs. Papia operates her restaurant in the Knickerbocker on the Lake Hotel, 1028 E. Juneau Ave. Her fiance is in the furniture business in Chicago, she said.

"Mrs. Papia said they would honeymoon in Acapulco for a week to 10 days before returning here. She said she would continue to operate the restaurant and they would have homes in Milwaukee and Chicago.

"Mrs. Papia said she met Buccieri in her restaurant about a year ago and he had been courting her since.

"A wedding dinner will follow the ceremony, but Mrs. Papia said she did not know where it would be held. Among the guests expected is singer Vic Damone, she said.

"Damone is a close friend of Buccieri and his brother, Fiore, known better as Fifi. Damone was the featured attraction at a dinner in behalf of Fiore Buccieri and his underworld lieutenant, James (Turk) Torello at Chicago's Edgewater Beach Hotel in 1967.

"Fiore Buccieri has been linked to extensive loan sharking operations in the Chicago area."

SALLY. BUCCIERI said he has not seen his brother, FRANK, for over two years, and indicated he was mad at his brother for some reason.

[redacted] GRUTTADAURO said the head of his union, [redacted] had recently been sentenced by Judge HOFFMANN in United States District Court, Chicago, to five years in the penitentiary. He said he had only been head of the union for five months and was convicted for not filing some sort of yearly report which had occurred before he became head of the union.

GRUTTADAURO said things are so bad today that you can get a 25-year sentence for gambling. b6 b7C

BUCCIERI said "RED" (DORFMAN) and other workers at the "farm" (Santa Fe Saddle and Gun Club) had been subpoenaed before the Grand Jury by the IBI. He said he told all of them to just answer the questions truthfully.

As SAs JOHNSON and [redacted] left the restaurant, [redacted] the professional comedian, a known associate of BUCCIERI's, was observed entering the restaurant via the back door.

On December 11, 1970, the Milwaukee Office furnished the Chicago Office with the following telephone numbers for SALLY PAPIA:

On December 28, 1970, CG T-2 advised that FRANK BUCCIERI had reportedly given SALLY PAPIA a full length white mink coat and a pink diamond which reportedly cost over $5,000.

On December 29, 1970, Lieutenant [redacted] Rockford Police Department, Rockford, Illinois, advised SA [redacted] that FRANK BUCCIERI is reportedly going to marry SALLY PAPIA in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, on January 4, 1971. A big reception is to be held in Sally's Steak House following the ceremony. b6 b7C

Lieutenant [redacted] advised that FRANK BALISTRIERI head of the Milwaukee LCN family, is reportedly the godfather of SALLY PAPIA.

Lieutenant [redacted] stated that a number of members of the LCN family in Rockford, Illinois, planned to attend the wedding.

The Milwaukee Office on January 5, 1971, advised that SALLY PAPIA was at work as usual on January 4, 1971, and there was no indication that a wedding had taken place.

On January 11, 1970, CG T-4 advised that on January 9, 1971, SALLY PAPIA had flown out of O'Hare Field, Chicago, Illinois, for Acapulco, Mexico, CG T-4 said that PAPIA was to marry FRANK BUCCIERI while in Acapulco.

CG T-5, on January 4, 1971, advised that FRANK BUCCIERI in recent months has been closely associates with one "JOHN" of Greek extraction, who drives a 1969 green Cadillac, Coupe de Ville, with Illinois 1971 license [redacted] (Registered to [redacted] Illinois.)

DETAILS:

An article appearing in the January 22, 1971 latest edition of the "Milwaukee Journal," a daily newspaper, was captioned and read as follows:

"Sally Papia Wed to Chicago Man"

"Mrs. Sally Papia, operator of Sally's Steak House here, and Frank Buccieri of Chicago were married last Friday in Acapulco, Mexico, she said Friday.

They returned here Thursday and are living in her apartment at 447 North Story Parkway.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

U. S. GOVERNMENT PRINTING OFFICE: 1969 O - 351-076

They also have an apartment in Chicago, she said, where Buccieri is in the furniture business. Buccieri's brother, Fiore, is one of Chicago's top hoodlums.

Mrs. Buccieri operates Sally's Steak House, 1028 East Juneau Avenue. She is 38 and Buccieri is 52. They met in her restaurant."

CG T-1 advised in February, 1971 that FRANK BUCCIERI was in the Los Angeles, California area during the latter part of January, 1971 and the first part of February, 1971 arranging for the rental of a house in Palm Springs, California.

CG T-2 advised in March, 1971 that FRANK BUCCIERI was observed by the Los Angeles Police meeting at Perena's Restaurant in Palm Springs, California at 2:00 a.m. on March 19, 1971, with persons believed to be officials of Foschback and Moore, a large electrical contractor. The police officers questioned BUCCIERI after the group had broken up and he reportedly told them he would answer questions about himself, but would not talk about anyone else.

b7C

CG T-3 advised in April, 1971 that FRANK BUCCIERI and his wife, SALLY, had returned to the Chicago-Milwaukee area in late March or early April, 1971. FRANK BUCCIERI, [redacted] TIO RAMELLI and [redacted] reportedly played gold at Fresh Meadows Golf Course, Chicago area, on April 23, 1971.

Ill Wise Ill Ill Wise

The Los Angeles Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation advised on April 2, 1971, that FRANK BUCCIERI and his wife, SALLY, nee PAPIA, were currently residing in a rented house at 2705 Livmor Avenue, Palm Springs, California.

On March 29, 1971, a white Cadillac Convertible with Wisconsin license K576 was observed at the above residence. This car was registered to Sally's Steak House, 1028 East Juneau Avenue, Milwaukee, Wisconsin. Also observed furing the week of March 22 through March 26, 1971, was a motorcycle registered to [redacted] Northridge, California.

CG 92-1998

CG T-4 advised in March, 1971, that FIORE BUCCIERI was operated on for cancer at Cedar of Lebanon Hospital, Los Angeles, in the early part of March, 1971. BUCCIERI had his left lung removed and the cancer reportedly was spread through the entire body and is terminal.

CG T-4 advised in June, 1971 that FIORE BUCCIERI had returned to the Chicago, Illinois area

On June 17, 1971 residing at California, furnished the following information to Special Agents and said he is presently employed as a piano player at the Playboy Club, Hollywood, California. said he is originally from Chicago and a former neighbor of FRANK BUCCIERI and when FRANK comes to California he usually contacts said that about three months ago FRANK BUCCIERI called and said he was in Palm Springs, California, with his brother, FIORE, who was ill with cancer. As a result, drove his motorcycle to Palm Springs and visited one day with FIORE and FRANK BUCCIERI.

said also present at the time and from Chicago were the following: the wife and son of FIORE, a brother CARMEN BUCCIERI, and one said that all the BUCCIERI's have departed California. said he personally knew of no criminal activities on the part of any of the BUCCIERIs.

On June 2, 1971 Palm Springs, California, advised Special Agent that FRANK BUCCIERI arrived at Palm Springs, California and rented his house at this address on March 1, 1971, for one month at $1,000. BUCCIERI told that he had driven to California with his brother, however, did not see the brother.

[redacted] said he did not believe anyone was at the house from March 2 through March 17, 1971. [redacted] said as he was leaving the house on March 18, 1971, after having a maid clean it, he talked to FRANK BUCCIERI and his wife who came to the house. FRANK BUCCIERI told [redacted] that he had been in Los Angeles since March 2, 1971, because his brother had been operated on and he had stayed in Los Angeles to be near his brother. [redacted] said FRANK BUCCIERI and his wife stayed at the house from March 18 through March 29, 1971, at which time they departed stating they were returning to their home in the east.

On May 4, 1971, [redacted] Palm Springs, California Police Department, advised Special Agent [redacted] that FRANK BUCCIERI and FIORE BUCCIERI no longer are in the Palm Springs area and their whereabouts are unknown. [redacted] said that FRANK BUCCIERI traveled from Palm Springs to Los Angeles on March 29, 1971, accompanied by [redacted] BUCCIERI was questioned at the Los Angeles Airport by the Los Angeles Police Detail, but would furnish no information. FRANK BUCCIERI and [redacted] returned to Palm Springs the same day. (It should be noted that [redacted] of Moeller Brotheas, Incorporated, a furniture store, Chicago, in which both FIORE and FRANK BUCCIERI have an interest in).

[redacted] furnished a copy of the telephone bill for number [redacted] at [redacted] Palm Springs, California, for the month of March, 1971. [redacted] said all calls listed were made by and charged to BUCCIERI.

The telephone calls to the Chicago area are as follows:

March 26, 1971 - (312)-BE 7-3741 (1 minute)
Listed number to [redacted]
Chicago, Illinois

March 27, 1971 - (312)-ST 8-7753 (16 minutes)
Known non-published number listed to FIORE BUCCIERI, 3004 South Maple, Berwyn, Illinois

March 28, 1971 - (312)-YO 6-5012 (8 minutes)
Listed number to [redacted]
Illinois

CG T-5 advised in June, 1971, that it is reported [redacted] is interested in selling Sally's Restaurant in Milwaukee. FRANK BUCCIERI is a friend and close associate of [redacted] of the Teamsters Union. FRANK and FIORE BUCCIERI are close to someone at the Como Inn, Chicago, and FRANK BUCCIERI is there frequently.

CG T-5 said in July, 1971, he had heard that the apartment where FRANK BUCCIERI and his wife SALLY reside at in Milwaukee was burglarized lately and furs and jewelry taken. BUCCIERI advised the Milwaukee Police, but they did not solve the crime fast enough to suit him, so he brought some men from Chicago to solve the crime. FRANK BUCCIERI's group came up with the four thieves and they were arrested by the Milwaukee Police.

CG T-5 advised further that Sally's golf tournament was held July 18, 1971, at the Alpine Valley, Wisconsin Golf Course. Fifty persons attended, all from Wisconsin except [redacted] and [redacted] from Chicago.

b7C

On August 11, 1971, FIORE BUCCIERI was engaged in conversation with Special Agent EUGENE I. SATHER and Special Agent [redacted] at BUCCIERI's residence at Lake Geneva, Wisconsin.

During the course of the conversation, the topic of FRANK BUCCIERI's paramour, [redacted] came up and FIORE BUCCIERI expressed his great dislike for her. In connection with his brother, FRANK, BUCCIERI said that FRANK's son is a frequent visitor at FIORE's Lake Geneva residence and that he thinks highly of the boy.

On September 3, 1971, FIORE BUCCIERI was again engaged in conversation with Special Agents SATHER and [redacted] at BUCCIERI's residence at Lake Geneva, Wisconsin. BUCCIERI acknowledged that his brother, FRANK, was marred to SALLY the operator of Sally's Steak House in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, but that he, FIORE, did not plan to visit them in Milwaukee. FIORE BUCCIERI said that on occasion, FRANK and SALLY have visited him at Lake Geneva, but never spent much time on these visits.

FIORE BUCCIERI said that FRANK BUCCIERI's son continues to come out to the lake just about every weekend to spend time with him. He described FRANK's son as a "good kid."

CG T-6 advised in August and September, 1971, that he had heard that FRANK and SALLY BUCCIERI had visited in Honolulu, Hawaii in early July, 1971. FRANK BUCCIERI is buying a new home in Milwaukee. It has been rumored in Chicago that [redacted] a young associate of FIORE BUCCIERI is the person who led the group that solved the jewel and fur theft for FRANK BUCCIERI in Milwaukee.

b7C

CG T-6 further advised that FRANK BUCCIERI was at Giannotti's Restaurant on Roosevelt Road, Forest Park, the early part of September, 1971, with several persons, including [redacted] the contractor [redacted] and a person believed to be [redacted]

DETAILS:

CG T-1 advised in October, 1971, that FRANK BUCCIERI lives in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, with his wife, SALLY PAPIA, the operator of Sally's Steak House. BUCCIERI has an apartment somewhere in the Chicago area and spends time there, also. BUCCIERI is at Moeller Brothers Furniture Store, 1272 Milwaukee Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, a couple times a week and meets some of his associates at the store. This furniture store is operated by [redacted]

CG T-1 identified a photograph of WILLIAM VICTOR SIMONE as the person who goes by the name of VIC CARDELLA and the person who is close to FIORE BUCCIERI. CG T-1 advised that he had heard that CARDELLA is the person who went to Milwaukee, Wisconsin, in 1971, and helped solve the SALLY PAPIA furs and jewelry burglary.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

U. S. GOVERNMENT PRINTING OFFICE: 1969 O - 351-076

CG 92-1998

On October 28, 1971, a report of the Intelligence Unit, Chicago, Police Department, showed that observations were made by officers of the Intelligence Unit at the wake and funeral of PHILLIP (FELIX) ALDERISIO at Montclaire Funeral Home, 6901 West Belmont Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, on September 26, 27, and 28, 1971. FRANK BUCCIERI and his wife, SALLY, were observed at the wake and funeral of ALDERISIO.

CG T-2 advised in December, 1971, that FRANK BUCCIERI, [redacted] and others attended [redacted] show in the Chicago Loop recently. It was reported that after the show, the entire group including [redacted] had dinner at Gianotti's Restaurant in Forest Park, Illinois. b6 b7C

CG T-2 advised that [redacted] has been close to both FIORE and FRANK BUCCIERI and [redacted] visited FIORE BUCCIERI, when BUCCIERI was in the hospital in Los Angeles.

CG T-3 advised that SALLY PAPIA and her husband, FRANK BUCCIERI of Milwaukee, had attended the funeral of FELIX ALDERISIO. CG T-3 advised that there are rumors that FRANK BUCCIERI is being groomed to take over the activities of FIORE BUCCIERI, who is reportedly dying of cancer. CG T-3 advised that FRANK BUCCIERI reportedly is seen on occasion at Sally's Restaurant in Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

CG T-4 advised in January, 1972, that FRANK BUCCIERI has a first floor apartment that he occasionally occupies at 7705 West Harvard, Forest Park, Illinois. A friend of BUCCIERI, Chicago builder, THOMAS CAPPELETTI owns the building. BUCCIERI reportedly frequents the Willow Restaurant on Circle and Roosevelt Road, Forest Park, Illinois.

Spot checks were made at 7705 West Harvard, Forest Park, Illinois, and at the Willow Restaurant, Forest Park, on the following dates. The subject was not observed:

February 4, 8, 15, 16, 23 and March 3, 1972.

CG 92-1998

CG T-2 advised in August, 1972, that FRANK BUCCIERI had attended the funeral of JOHN ALIOTO, former boss of the Milwaukee La Cosa Nostra Family, at Milwaukee.

On September 29, 1972, SA PETER J. WACKS, Jr., made observations inside of Sorini's Restaurant, 8406 West 26th Street, North Riverside, Illinois. A large number of persons were gathered for the 25th wedding anniversary of [redacted] and his wife. [redacted] of Northwestern Candy and Tobacco Company, Chicago, Illinois. FRANK BUCCIERI and SALLY PAPIA were observed during the evening conversing with [redacted] and numerous other guests.

Automobiles belonging to the following persons and usually driven by them were observed at the restaurant:

JAMES "Turk" TORELLO
JAMES LA PIETRA
[redacted]

One-half -

[redacted] license was signed by [redacted] and [redacted]

The license for 1971 contained the same information with the exception that [redacted] gave his address as [redacted] Illinois, and that both owners also manage the restaurant and lounge.

b6
b7C

Observation on October 3, 1972, showed a new sign being installed at the restaurant at 8406 West 26th Street, North Riverside, Illinois. The sign showed "The Riverside," and the sign "Sorini's" was being taken down.

CG T-3 advised in October, 1972, that FRANK BUCCIERI is the actual owner of Sorini's Restaurant in North Riverside, Illinois. BUCCIERI spends a lot of time at the restaurant. BUCCIERI is also meeting members of the Chicago "outfit" at the Hearth Club, located in the Marriott Motor Hotel in Park Ridge, Illinois.

CG T-4 advised in October, 1972, that FRANK BUCCIERI and his wife, SALLY PAPIA, are the owners of "The Riverside," 8406 West 26th Street, North Riverside, Illinois (telephone 447-2606).

CG T-5 advised in October, 1972, that FRANK BUCCIERI and [redacted] played golf in October as guests of [redacted] a club member, at the Riverside Golf Club. FRANK BUCCIERI is reportedly the true owner of "The Riverside," formerly Sorini's in North Riverside, Illinois, although [redacted] is the owner of record. FRANK BUCCIERI is also frequenting the Czech Lodge in North Riverside, and the Lazy Lion Pancake House in Forest Park, Illinois.

DETAILS

An article appearing in the Milwaukee Journal, a daily newspaper of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, dated December 18, 1972, stated that last week, Mrs. SALLY PAPIA and FRANK BUCCIERI were served with subpoenaes to testify in a trial of [redacted] a Milwaukee barber accused of receiving jewels taken in a burglary of her former home. [redacted] allegedly paid a southside Milwaukee man $400 for four rings taken in the burglary. The rings are now in the possession of BUCCIERI.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents

BUCCIERI and Mrs. PAPIA were ordered to bring one of the rings that [redacted] allegedly bought along with them. The ring, worth about $20,000, according to sources, was a gift from BUCCIERI to Mrs. PAPIA. According to the police, about $49,000 worth of jewelry was taken in the burglary.

An article appearing in the December 26, 1972, issue of the Milwaukee Sentinel, a daily newspaper of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, headlined "Trial Deposition Sought from Ailing BUCCIERI" stated in part as follows:

"FRANK BUCCIERI, an associate of Chicago crime figures, did not appear as a witness in a trial Thursday and unusual arrangements were made to try to take his deposition at Chicago."

The article stated that BUCCIERI was reportedly ill at a Chicago hospital. SALLY PAPIA, a close friend of BUCCIERI, testified at the start of the trial of EDWIN SIEGEL, a 42 year old Milwaukee barber accused of perjury and receiving four rings taken in a burglary of Mrs. PAPIA's house. b6 b7C

"BUCCIERI,who officials believe was instrumental in the return of some of Mrs. PAPIA's jewelry, did not accompany her."

"A nurse at Forkosh Memorial Hospital, Chicago, told a reported that BUCCIERI entered the hospital two days ago with a 'respiratory infection'. She said he is doing fine."

A bench warrant was issued for BUCCIERI so the court would not lose jurisdiction.

The December 27, 1972, issue of the Milwaukee Sentinel stated that a deposition was taken from BUCCIERI on December 26, 1972, at his hospital room in Chicago. BUCCIERI said he was the fiance of Mrs. PAPIA and helped to get the stolen jewelry back by making some inquiries including talking to [redacted] at his barbershop. BUCCIERI said [redacted] returned three rings to him and he dropped these in the mailbox of Mrs. PAPIA's house.

The December 29, 1972, issue of the Milwaukee Sentinel told of [redacted] breaking down on the witness stand and weeping hysterically because he thought he would be killed due to his testimony. [redacted] said FRANK BUCCIERI had threatened him and associates of BUCCIERI had told [redacted] not to reveal the circumstances surrounding the return of the rings stolen from SALLY PAPIA. [redacted] named the associates as [redacted]

[redacted] said he had known [redacted] for years and that [redacted] was "a violent man."

On January 8, 1973, Captain [redacted] Milwaukee Police Department, advised FBI Agents at Milwaukee that on January 5, 1973, at 1:15 a.m., a vehicle bearing 1973 Illinois license plate JP2 was seen leaving the residence of SALLY PAPIA, 2880 North Menomonee Parkway, Milwaukee.

b6
b7C

Records of the Illinois Secretary of State's Office show that both 1972 and 1973 Illinois license plates were registered to [redacted] Illinois, and show as follows:

The license was issued on a 1972 Cadillac sedan, four-door, driver's license [redacted] Social Security Number [redacted] The driver's license was issued January 4, 1973, and expires January 5, 1976. The descriptive data is as follows:

Name	[redacted]
Date of Birth
Sex	Male

CG T-3 advised in January, 1973, that FRANK BUCCIERI and SALLY PAPIA left on January 11, 1973, to spend until around January 24, 1973, in Palm Springs, California. b6 b7C

CG T-2 further advised in January, 1973, that [redacted] the comedian, and a good friend of FIORE and FRANK BUCCIERI, is appearing at the Riverside Restaurant, 8406 West 26th Street, North Riverside, Illinois, a restaurant and lounge owned by FRANK BUCCIERI and SALLY PAPIA.

CG T-1 advised in February, 1973, that SALLY PAPIA, girlfriend of FRANK BUCCIERI, returned to Milwaukee on February 16, 1973, after spending several weeks in Palm Springs, California.

CG T-2 advised in February, 1973, that the individual who was recently arrested by the Chicago Police Department in connection with a jewelry robbery in Evanston, Illinois, is believed to be [redacted] is believed to be the person who accompanied VIC CARDELLA to Milwaukee to assist FRANK BUCCIERI in recovering the jewelry stolen from SALLY PAPIA.

CG 92-1998

On February 9, 1973, Special Agent PETER J. WACKS observed a 1973 Cadillac convertible, white over brown, Eldorado, bearing 1973 Illinois license [redacted], in the parking lot of The Riverside restaurant, North Riverside, Illinois. This car is registered to [redacted] Glenview, Illinois.

[redacted] of Moeller Brothers Furniture Company, 1272 Milwaukee Avenue, Chicago. Also observed in the parking lot was a green over green Buick Skylard bearing 1973 Wisconsin license G78-780.

CG T-2 and CG T-3 advised in January, 1973, that they could furnish no information concerning [redacted]

CG T-3 advised in March, 1973, that [redacted] also known as [redacted] has taken over as bar manager of The Riverside Restaurant for FRANK BUCCIERI replacing [redacted] is leaving for Lake Tahoe, Nevada, to operate a casino.

CG T-4 further advised that FRANK BUCCIERI has an apartment on the first floor of the building at 7705 Harvard, Forest Park. The building is owned by [redacted] a builder, who is close to Chicago "outfit" members.

CG T-5 advised in January, 1973, that FRANK BUCCIERI is the boss at The Riverside Restaurant and Lounge, 8406 West 26th Street, North Riverside, Illinois. [redacted] is the owner of the restaurant on paper, as is [redacted] It is believed that [redacted] was muscled out of the business by BUCCIERI and [redacted] BUCCIERI drives a brown Cadillac registered to [redacted]

b7C

CG T-5 advised that one [redacted] from Milwaukee, a former employee and boyfriend of SALLY PAPIA, is the [redacted] at The Riverside. [redacted] has the reputation of being a rough guy. He drives a blue Mercedes with Wisconsin license plates and is residing in an apartment in Forest Park, Illinois.

CG T-5 said The Riverside is completely remodeled and is beautiful on the inside. The Riverside is doing extensive advertising in the papers of the Western suburbs of Chicago and is building up a large clientele

CG t-6 advised in March, 1973, that FRANK BUCCIERI, SALLY PAPIA, and [redacted] departed Milwaukee, Wisconsin, drove to Chicago in a 1973 Cadillac bearing 1973 Illinois license [redacted] registered to [redacted] CANDY is the daughter of SALLY PAPIA.

CG T-6 advised that the three individuals then flew to Las Vegas, Nevada, where they stayed for a week. The purpose of the trip was to get [redacted] into show business in Las Vegas.

[redacted] has received a payment of $1,687.75 every month from February, 1969, to the present time and has made all these payments as monthly deposits in the Berwyn National Bank to [redacted] personal savings account.

After the corporation was formed, [redacted] turned more and more of the actual operation of the business over to [redacted] and learned later that [redacted] knew nothing about running the business.

[redacted] were taking $1,000 each every two weeks out of the business. [redacted] went to Florida for awhile and later found out that [redacted] had not been paying the debts of the business and the restaurant was $50,000 to $60,000 in debt. b6 b7C

[redacted] confronted [redacted] in March, 1972, and told him that either [redacted] leave the business or [redacted] would leave.

[redacted] said he would stay, assume all debts, and keep paying on the contract to [redacted] A resolution was drawn up on March 16, 1972, giving [redacted] full control of the business.

[redacted] said he is satisfied with the entire deal, receives his $1,687.75 a month, and has no pressure of operating the restaurant.

[redacted] said he knows that [redacted] and [redacted] friends visit the restaurant, but has no information that FRANK BUCCIERI is the true owner of the restaurant, now known as The Riverside.

[redacted] said he knows SALLY PAPIA and has visited her restaurant in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. PAPIA is either married to or living with FRANK BUCCIERI and has visited The Riverside with BUCCIERI.

[redacted] said he has never had any business dealings with FRANK BUCCIERI and has never been muscled in business by BUCCIERI or anyone else.

[redacted] said that what [redacted] does with the way he operates The Riverside is [redacted] business and the only concern [redacted] has is getting his $1,687.75 monthly.

On April 19, 1973 [redacted] Chicago, Illinois, adivsed Special Agent (SA) [redacted] as follows: b6 b7C

[redacted] discontinued her relationship with her old boyfriend, FRANK BUCCIERI, several years ago. BUCCIERI is currently living in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, and is married to SALLY PAPIA who is extremely jealous of BUCCIERI.

[redacted] still contacts FRANK BUCCIERI on occasion and believes BUCCIERI owns Sally's Steak House in Milwaukee.

[redacted] used to go horseback riding at the Santa Fe Saddle and Gun Club, 91st and Country Line Road, Hinsdale, Illinois. BUCCIERI had given REYNOLDS a horse which she kept at the club. [redacted] also kept a horse there. [redacted] also knew FRANK's brother FIORE, and said FIORE is now dying of cancer.

CG T-1 advised in May, 1973, that FRANK BUCCIERI reportedly owns The Riverside, a restaurant at 1st Avenue and 26th Street, North Riverside, Illinois, and that it was purchased by FRANK's brother, FIORE BUCCIERI. The restaurant is allegedly licensed in another person's name.

CG T-2 advised in April, 1973, that FRANK BUCCIERI was of the opinion that Milwaukee, Wisconsin, was open territory some time ago and sought to establish himself there. BUCCIERI reportedly bought SALLY PAPIA a house and helped her establish Sally's Steak House. BUCCIERI reportedly married SALLY PAPIA. b6 b7C

CG T-2 further advised that as the result of the notoriety given the jewel theft of PAPIA's residence, FRANK BUCCIERI "lost face" and his Milwaukee operation closed, causing BUCCIERI to return to the Chicago area.

CG T-3 advised in May, 1973, that FRANK BUCCIERI lives at 7705 Harvard, Forest Park, Illinois, when in Chicago and daily visits The Riverside restaurant. The property next to The Riverside is being purchased by the restaurant in order to provide more parking space. BUCCIERI drives a Cadillac Eldorado registered to [redacted] of Moeller Brothers Furniture, Chicago.

CG T-4 advised in July, 1973, that FRANK BUCCIERI has been having domestic problems with his reported wife, SALLY PAPIA. PAPIA spends most of her time in Milwaukee. When FRANK BUCCIERI is in Chicago, he can usually be found at The Riverside restaurant in the evenings.

[redacted] was interviewed at his residence [redacted] Chicago, Illinois, and advised as follows:

[redacted] of the Riverside Restaurant and Lounge, 8406 West 26th Street, North Riverside, Illinois. The restaurant burned to the ground on April 29, 1974, and was insured for a total of $568,000 with Travellers Insurance Company, 175 West Jackson, Chicago, Illinois. At the present time no payout of insurance money has been made, but is is expected within the next few months.

Investigation to date by the local authorities in North Riverside, Illinois, and by the State Fire Marshal has determined the cause of the fire to be arson. [redacted] does not anticipate a major problem in collecting the insurance money inasmuch as he had nothing to do with burning down the restaurant. Mi-Lor Corporation is the insured and is owned entirely by [redacted] and his wife [redacted]

[redacted] stated the premises was insured by Travellers Insurance Company as follows with the policy being written by Centennial Agency, Crystal Lake, Illinois, on April 1, 1974:

Premises	$325,000
Contents	150,000
Business Interruption	65,000
Building of former Citgo Gas Station	28,000
Total	$568,000

All business records were salvaged from the fire and are in the possession of FRANK CALLERO, Certified Public Accountant

[redacted] said he has absolutely no idea who burned the restaurant down. He said business was excellent and he had parties and banquets booked two years in advance. He had no known enemies and is still in a state of shock over the restaurant loss.

[redacted] said he came into the business in 1969 and formed a corporation called Mi-Lor, Incorporated with [redacted] the business for years. [redacted] had a heart attack and was looking for a partner. [redacted] the Big Pit, a hamburger restaurant at Howard and Clark Street, Chicago, which is now run by [redacted] brother. [redacted] put no money into the business, merely furnishing his services. The corporation assumed a land contract to [redacted] for $200,000, payable over 15 years at $1,687.50 per month.

[redacted] wanted to get out of the business and due to health and personal reasons sold his interest to [redacted] in 1972. [redacted] kept the corporation as Mi-Lor, gave [redacted] $2,200 and assumed all debts including the obligation of the land contract. b6 b7C

To date there is $160,000 still owed to [redacted]

[redacted] said that [redacted] was never forced or muscled from the business and that there were no hidden partners or owners in the Riverside Restaurant and Lounge. FRANK BUCCIERI had no interest in the restaurant, other than being a long time friend of [redacted] BUCCIERI grew up with [redacted] in Chicago and [redacted] knows all the BUCCIERIs and was acquainted with the deceased FIORE BUCCIERI.

FRANK BUCCIERI started to help out at the Riverside Restaurant and gave [redacted] alot of help in the restaurant. BUCCIERI was responsible for alot of the business at the Riverside and his wife SALLY PAPIA from Milwaukee offered suggestions and helped to improve the business.

[redacted] when in need of money, turned to BUCCIERI who arranged for the $40,000 loan from [redacted] BUCCIERI may have told people that the Riverside was his restaurant. [redacted] told his employees that they were to follow instructions at the restaurant if given by BUCCIERI as if the instructions came from [redacted] himself.

[redacted] said that although it may have appeared that BUCCIERI had an interest in the restaurant, he had no monetary interest at all. The Riverside became a hangout for many of the friends of the BUCCIERIs including JAMES TORELLO [redacted] JAMES LA PIETRA, VICTOR SIMONE (now deceased) [redacted] and numerous other persons associated with FRANK BUCCIERI. Without the help of FRANK BUCCIERI and his influence with numerous persons the business would have failed. BUCCIERI seemed glad to do this due to his friendship with [redacted] while giving BUCCIERI a place to hang out while in Chicago. b6 b7C

Kenosha, Wisconsin. Informant further heard that SALLY has allegedly "stepped on soneone's toes" in Chicago.

On 8/27/75, [redacted] advised that in the recent past the owner of the Cafe Bohemian, Chicago, Illinois, was in Milwaukee with some unknown female. While in Milwaukee this individual spent some time at Alioto's on Bluemound and appeared to be quite friendly with [redacted] of the Cafe Bohemian, has been previously identified as a good friend of the subject.

On 9/1/75, [redacted] advised that FRANK BUCCIERI is leaving the Milwaukee area for Palm Springs, California, on 9/3/75, to look over the possibility of purchasing a restaurant in Palm Springs. A close associate of BUCCIERI and contact man of his in Palm Springs is [redacted] of D'Amico's Restaurant.

BUCCIERI had indicated he is contemplating leaving the Milwaukee area permanently, possibly to settle in Palm Springs and undoubtedly, [redacted] will go with him. Depending on BUCCIERI's decision, [redacted] will most probably sell his restaurant here in Milwaukee. It is anticipated finalization of any move on their part will be made by the first of January, 1976.

On 9/8/75, [redacted] advised that FRANK BUCCIERI and GUS ALEX had recently met to discuss business in Florida.

On 9/4/75, [redacted] advised that FRANK BUCCIERI left Milwaukee via automobile for Chicago 9/2/75. BUCCIERI was to leave Chicago via plane for Palm Springs, California, 9/3/75, and return to Milwaukee in approximately two weeks. BUCCIERI is attempting to pruchase and/or open up a new nightclub in the Palm Springs area through the use of the liquor license of [redacted] of D'Amico's Restaurant, Palm Springs.

On 9/15/75, [redacted] advised that he recently heard FRANK BUCCIERI was frequenting the Club Garabaldi on the South Side of Milwaukee. This club is owned by a woman named [redacted] and BUCCIERI may possibly be attempting to move in on this location.

BUCCIERI and SALLY PAPIA are allegedly out in Palm Springs, California, in connection with opening a restaurant out there. The restaurant is an existing establishment and they are allegedly having the former bartender of this establishment run it for them.

On 9/16/75, [redacted] advised that FRANK BUCCIERI had still not returned to the Milwaukee area from Palm Springs. Informant heard SALLY PAPIA was currently in Palm Springs with BUCCIERI. Informant also heard that one of SALLY's cooks had recently quit working for her and was allegedly going to work at the Brewers Chalet on West Good Hope Road. b6 b7C b7D

On October 31, 1975, [redacted] advised SA DUNCAN J. EVERETTE that [redacted] FRANK BUCCIERI for years, but did not know FIORE BUCCIERI too well. The source said that FRANK BUCCIERI spends most of his time in Milwaukee and the source has not seen him in Chicago for several months. The source heard FRANK BUCCIERI was going into the restaurant business with FRANK (LNU), who had worked at the Riverside Restaurant before it burned. FRANK (LNU) is from Milwaukee. The source said FRANK BUCCIERI has no residence in the Chicago area, but stays at various motels when in Chicago.
